

I want to be helpful to customers.

My supervisor expects me to answer JUST the customer's question.

I do not need to share other things that I know.

I answer JUST the customer's question and immediately go back to work so that the customer can shop alone and so that I can get my job done.

This is GOOD CUSTOMER SERVICE!