

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

You see a "Help Wanted" sign in the door of a small shop. You walk inside and see a person standing behind a cash register. She looks at you and smiles.

What do you say and do?

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

After entering an office building to request an application, you see a desk with a receptionist sitting behind it. She is talking on the phone.

What do you say and do?

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

You want to get an application from a grocery store. After entering the grocery store, you see a line of people waiting at the customer service area.

What do you say and do?

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

After asking the manager of a restaurant for an application he asks, "What is your availability?"

What do you say?

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

You ask a hostess if you can have an application. She says, "I don't think we're hiring."

What do you do and say?

Door to Door Search scenarios:

L3

After walking into a warehouse, you do not see a reception area or customer service desk. A gentleman nearby is unloading boxes. You want to ask him if he can tell you where to go.

What do you do and say?