

Family and Consumer Sciences Social Narrative (Modified)

Sometimes customers may interrupt me when I am busing tables. If I am interrupted, I should:

- 1) Take a deep breath.
- 2) Smile and ask, "Can you please repeat your question?"
- 3) If I know the answer = help the person myself.

OR

If I do not know the answer = say, "Let's find someone who can help" and find the manager.
