

Key Points

Choosing References

- References are people who have positive things to say about you and can recommend you for employment.
- References are usually NOT your family members, boyfriends, or girlfriends.
- You will need between 2-4 references.