

Networking is when I contact people I know who might be able to help me find a job. There are people I know who might be able to help me find a job. They might even know other people who can help me too. I feel comfortable when talking to people by email. So, if I email these people, they might be able to help me!

That would be great, because I really need to find work.