

Getting Ready for Work scenario card:

L3

Your parents tell you that they need to leave to take you to work in the morning at 7:30. You usually get up at 7:00 and leave at 8:00. Adjust your morning schedule and checklist to reflect the change in times so you are ready to go at 7:30.

- 1) What materials can you gather tonight to save time in the morning? Is there anything else you can do tonight instead of waiting until morning?
- 2) What do you need to do in the morning? What materials will you need to have ready?
- 3) How long will your morning tasks take? (Do you need to refer to your estimation/ actual organizer worksheet?)
- 4) What time will you need to get up?

Changing Classes scenario card:

L3

During morning meeting, your homeroom teacher has announced that yearbooks will be given out in the media center at the end of the day. You are in English at that time and will be working on a project. Readjust your checklist to reflect what you can do to get to the media center and pick up your yearbook before you need to be at the bus.

What do you need to do earlier in the day? Will you need to go to your locker and can you go earlier in the day?

What do you need to do at the end of the day (English class to Media Center to bus)?

What will you write on your checklist or schedule? Can you set an alarm on your watch?

During Class scenario card:

L3

After reviewing for the upcoming quiz, the teacher reminds you it is tomorrow, asks you to put the review away, and get out Catcher in the Rye, your notebook, and a pencil.

Did you understand the instructions? Do you need clarification?

What do you do with the current materials? Where do you put them? (*is this where you practice using a visual support like a reminder card?)

What should you do to remember the time of the quiz?

How do you prepare for the next activity?

At a Grocery Store Job scenario card:

L3

While stocking the vegetable aisle, your boss asks you to help unload the delivery truck and then help stock produce.

What is the problem or change?

What do you need to do with your current materials? Do you need to ask for clarification or for help?

What materials will you need for the next task?

How do you need to adjust your checklist to reflect the changes?
