

Self-Advocacy

Graphic Organizers: Who do you tell about your disability

Carefully consider who would be the right person to tell about your disability.

People you may choose to disclose your disability to as you seek employment or are in the work place include the following. Please read through the list and make comments for yourself who might work for your situation.

- ☐ Prospective or current human resources administrators_____
- ☐ Your direct supervisor_____
- ☐ Mentor_____
- ☐ Job Coach_____
- ☐ Disability services administrator_____
- ☐ Others_____

Here are some questions to think about before completing the about “Who to tell”:

- Is the person a supervisor or the one who makes decisions about hiring?
Yes / No
Name/ Position _____
- Will the person support my needs and help obtain the reasonable accommodations?
Yes / No
Name/ Position _____
- Will the person keep the information confidential?
Yes / No
Name/ Position _____