

Justin needs to be clean and dress nicely when interviewing for a job.

If Justin looks sloppy, the interviewer might not think he really wants the job.

Being clean means that Justin needs to:

Take a shower the same day of his interview.

Wear deodorant.

Comb his hair.

Justin also needs to dress right for the job.
This means he should wear:

Clean khaki pants.

A clean shirt with a collar.

His brown shoes.

If Justin is clean and neat, he is showing his interviewer that he really wants the job.
